

WARRAMBUI

Safeguarding Statement for Children and Young People

We at Warrambui believe children and young people who come to Warrambui should:

- feel comfortable;
- feel valued;
- be cared for; and
- feel safe and be safe.

Everyone who works here does their best to make sure you are protected from any harm.

It is not okay for anyone to hurt your feelings or your body.

It is okay for you to say NO to an adult if they ask you to do something that makes you feel unsafe or uncomfortable.

If you ever feel unsafe, uncomfortable or upset we will listen to you and act to help you.

Anything that makes you feel unsafe, upset or uncomfortable will be taken seriously by us.

It is always okay to tell someone if you are not feeling comfortable or safe or if you have been hurt.

We value your feedback on your time at Warrambui and listen to any suggestions you may have to make our camps safer and better.

If you are unhappy with the way you are being treated, please tell someone from Warrambui, a teacher, camp leader or a parent.
